How to Vote on Items of Business

Appointing a proxy

All shareholders of the Company entitled to attend and vote at the meeting are entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote for them instead by signed notice in writing. A proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company. If you appoint a proxy, you may either direct your proxy how to vote for you on the resolution or you may give your proxy discretion to vote as he or she sees fit. If you wish to give your proxy discretion, then you must mark the appropriate boxes on the form to grant your proxy that discretion. If you do not tick any box for a particular resolution, then the proxy will vote as he or she sees fit.

If you do not name a person as your proxy or your named proxy does not attend the meeting, the Chair of the Meeting will be appointed your proxy and will vote in accordance with your express direction. The Chair of the Meeting intends to vote any undirected proxies held by him in favour of the Resolution.

Casting a postal vote

Shareholders who are entitled to attend and vote at the Special Meeting may cast a postal vote instead of attending in person or appointing a proxy.

Ordinary Resolution

The resolution will be passed if approved by ordinary resolution at the Special Meeting. An ordinary resolution means a resolution passed by a simple majority of the votes of shareholders of the Company entitled to vote and voting on the resolution.

Voting Restrictions

Please refer to the Notice of Meeting for a full list of shareholders who are prohibited from voting in favour of the Resolution.

The Company will disregard any votes cast on the Resolution by any persons to whom the foregoing applies.

Signing Instructions

Individual

Where the holding is in one name, the shareholder must sign.

Joint Holding

Where the holding is in more than one name, all of the shareholders should sign (on behalf of all shareholders). In the case of joint shareholders, if the shareholders appoint different proxies, the vote of the proxy appointed by the first shareholder will be counted.

Power of Attorney

If this Proxy Form has been signed under a power of attorney, a copy of the power of attorney (unless already deposited with the Company) and a signed certificate of non-revocation of the power of attorney must be produced to the Company with this Proxy Form.
