Broker Handling Fee

Marlin has introduced a broker handling fee payable to NZX brokers in respect of the exercise of Marlin warrants by their clients. If you are a client of an NZX broker firm, your advisor should contact you about the exercise of warrants if they recommend proceeding with the action. Your broker may instruct you to complete the "Broker's details" in the online Exercise Form. By doing this you acknowledge that the broker has provided advice and that they may be paid a broker handling fee. Exercise Forms completed with a broker name will be valid for payment of the handling fee. The broker handling fee, payable by Marlin Global Limited, is calculated at 0.4% of the total consideration payable for warrants exercised by a client. Computershare will process the completed warrant exercise forms received from holders, as well as record and pay any related fees on behalf of the company. You may not have a broker or may elect not to use the services of your broker; in which case you should ignore that section of the online Exercise Form.

If you require any assistance with completing an application online at www.warrants.co.nz/marlin, please contact our registrar Computershare either by email at marlin@computershare.co.nz or phone 0800 650 034.

Yours sincerely

Alistair Ryan
