3. Australasian COVID lockdowns in the first half of FY22 resulted in over 11,000 lost trading days.

RECORD SALES $1.1 BILLION

- First full year of uninterrupted trade post-pandemic.*<sup>3</sup>
- Strong sales growth from all brands in the first three quarters.
- Q4 cost-of-living pressures softened consumer sentiment. Kathmandu faced the warmest winter on record in Australia and cycled its best-ever winter trade season last year.

GROSS MARGIN REMAINS RESILIENT

- Group gross margin +20 bps (0.2% of sales). Improved channel mix, wholesale pricing and international freight costs offsetting currency headwinds.

OPERATING EXPENSES MAINTAINED % OF SALES

- Operating expenses held at 49.5% of sales, despite softened sales performance in Q4 and FY22 $12.2m one-off COVID assistance.
- Support office and wetsuit factory restructuring undertaken. The $4.0m one-off cost has been excluded from Underlying results.
- Higher funding costs due to increased funding rates and higher working capital.

EBITDA margin %	9.6%	11.0%
EBIT margin %	7.6%	9.0%

- Direct-to-consumer sales growth particularly strong in Australasia following lockdowns last year, plus Hawaii and Thailand with the return of international travel.
- Direct-to-consumer same store sales (incl. online) +8.0%.<sup>*2</sup>
- Online sales normalised at $34.9m as consumers returned to shopping in stores, now 10.6% of DTC sales. Online CAGR since FY19 +20.1%, significantly above pre-COVID levels.
- Wholesale showing resilience despite softening wetsuit demand from record highs.
- Gross margin increased +60 bps (0.6% of sales), reflecting channel mix, improved wholesale pricing, and the easing of elevated international freight costs.
- FY22 operating expenses included the benefit of $7.5m one-off COVID assistance.

1. The impacts of IFRS 16, restructuring, and the notional amortisation of customer relationships are excluded from underlying results. Refer to Appendix 2 for a reconciliation of Statutory to Underlying results.
 2. Same store sales are for the 52 full weeks ended 30 July 2023, and are measured at constant currency.
 3. FY20 includes 9 months of Rip Curl post-acquisition.

KATHMANDU PROFIT & LOSS

NZ $m	FY23	FY22	Var %

EBITDA margin %	12.4%	9.5%
EBIT margin %	7.9%	4.7%

- Australia sales +7.0%. Kathmandu’s largest market saw a strong recovery following COVID lockdowns last year. Q4 cost of living pressures softened consumer sentiment. Kathmandu faced the warmest winter on record in Australia and cycled its best-ever winter trade season last year.
- New Zealand +13.1%, supported by returning domestic and international tourism.
- International sales of $2.6m including first deliveries to select new wholesale customers in Europe and Canada.
- Online sales normalised at $58.8m as consumers returned to shopping in stores, now 14.0% of DTC sales. Online CAGR since FY19 +5.4%, comfortably above pre-COVID levels.
- Same store sales (incl. online) +8.5%.<sup>*2</sup>
- Gross margin increased +100 bps (1.0% of sales) with the deliberate strategy to carefully moderate the historic “high-low” pricing model.

1. The impacts of IFRS 16 and restructuring are excluded from underlying results. Refer to Appendix 2 for a reconciliation of Statutory to Underlying results.
 2. Same store sales are for the 52 full weeks ended 30 July 2023, and are measured at constant currency.

EBIT margin %	7.1%	4.3%

- Record sales achieved.
- Wholesale sales recovered strongly following last year’s significant supply challenges.
- Strong online sales growth with high gross margins increasing the mix of direct-to-consumer sales.
- Gross margin increased +270 bps (+2.7% of sales) with improved channel mix, improved wholesale pricing, new product introductions, and the easing of elevated international freight costs.
- Operating expenses include investment in brand and product teams to support long-term growth objectives, including international expansion.

1. The impacts of IFRS 16, restructuring, and the notional amortisation of customer relationships are excluded from underlying results. Refer to Appendix 2 for a reconciliation of Statutory to Underlying results.

SECTION 4

FOCUSED STRATEGY UNDERPINS OUTLOOK

STRATEGIC PRIORITIES

BUILDING GLOBAL BRANDS

Rip Curl

Deliver continued North America sales growth, executing wholesale, and omni-channel opportunities.

Kathmandu

New CEO to focus on growing international sales, leveraging the Group structure.

Oboz

Expansion into Europe and relaunch in ANZ with appointment of Brand Managers in Australasia and Europe.

ELEVATING DIGITAL

Loyalty

Relaunch Kathmandu loyalty programme 'Out there rewards'. Continue to build Club Rip Curl.

Talent

Commencement of Group and Brand Executives to accelerate digital transformation.

Personalisation

Increased investment in personalisation, leveraging brand loyalty programs.

OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE

Working capital

Working capital target 18% of sales. Rip Curl and Oboz reductions in wetsuits and footwear inventory.

EBITDA margin

Group underlying EBITDA margin<sup>*1</sup> target 15% of sales - specific targets for brands and corporate functions.

Operating efficiencies

Ongoing consolidation of costs, to leverage Group structure, specifically supply chain and systems.

LEAD IN ESG

Responsible materials

Increase responsible material content in our products. Reduce the waste footprint created across our businesses.

Science-based targets

Reduce emissions in line with the Paris Climate Agreement goals.

Circularity

Foster and invest in circular business models across our brands. Continue to scale Kathman-REDU and the Seamless Initiative via Rip Curl.

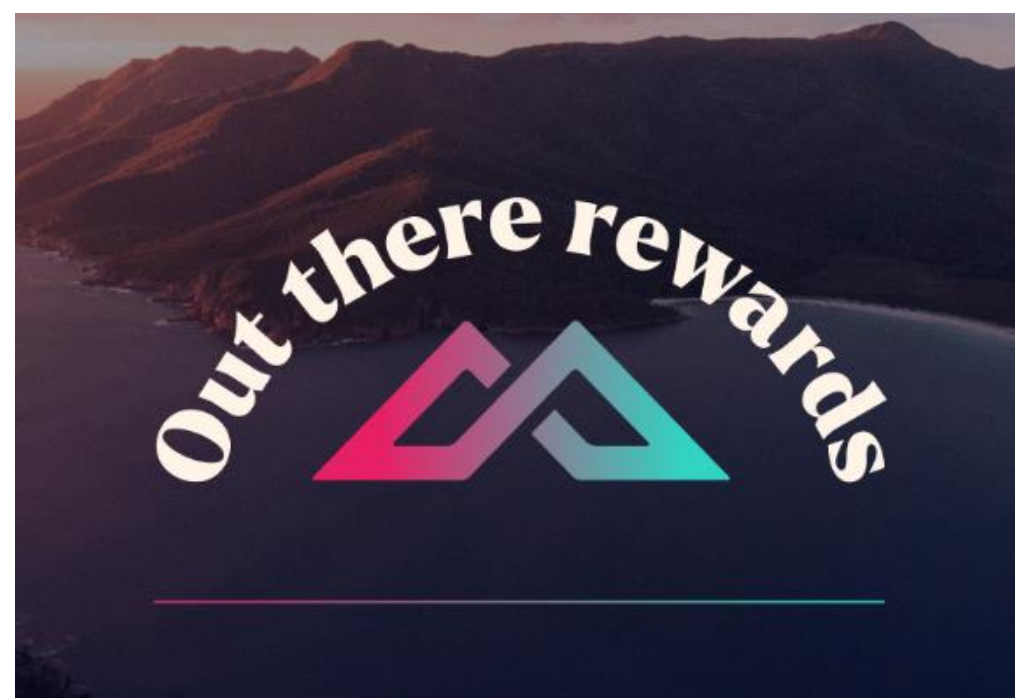

1. Statutory results include the impact of IFRS 16 leases. For comparability, the impacts of IFRS 16 and restructuring are excluded from Underlying results. Refer to Appendix 1 for a reconciliation of Statutory to Underlying results.

CONTINUED BRAND INNOVATION

FUSION WETSUIT

- North American launch of the world's most innovative wetsuit.
- Breakthrough innovation for a market that's highly competitive, where 'hype' matters.

KATHMANDU OUT THERE REWARDS

- Relaunch of Kathmandu's highly successful loyalty program.
- The program rewards members for engaging in their passion - getting outdoors.
- Loyalty members have historically accounted for c. 70% of total sales, with members typically spending c. 20% more per transaction than non-members.

TRAILHEAD STRETCH

- Kathmandu's most versatile raincoat yet.
- Waterproof, windproof, breathable and now with mechanical stretch fabric. Main fabric is made from 100% recycled polyester.
- Key addition to the rainwear range that provides a great jacket at a great price point.

PATH TO 15% UNDERLYING EBITDA MARGIN

SPECIFIC TARGETS FOR BRANDS AND CORPORATE FUNCTIONS ALIGNED TO GROWTH STRATEGY

Restructuring & cost-out completed:

- Support offices and wetsuit production facility.
- Marketing normalisation.
- Retail labour optimisation.

Operating Leverage:

- Targeted synergies in Supply Chain, Systems, and Finance.
- Further centralisation of corporate shared service functions.
- Continued strong cost discipline, leveraging growth.

Gross Margin Expansion:

- Ongoing consolidation of suppliers and production efficiencies.
- Reduced freight rates.
- SKU rationalisation.
- Kathmandu high-low model evolution.

Normalisation:

- Kathmandu winter and ongoing travel recovery.
- Rip Curl global wetsuit demand / supply reset.
- Oboz returning to historic operating margins.

1. Statutory results include the impact of IFRS 16 leases. For comparability, the impacts of IFRS 16 and restructuring are excluded from Underlying results. Refer to Appendix 1 for a reconciliation of Statutory to Underlying results.

TRADING UPDATE AND OUTLOOK

FY24 OUTLOOK

- Group sales for Aug 23 -6.4% below last year.
- Kathmandu Q4 sales trend continues, but consistent with pre-pandemic sales levels for this time of year.
- Rip Curl and Oboz have seen good momentum in direct-to-consumer sales.

- Strategic plans remain unchanged, with key executive appointments (Kathmandu CEO, Chief Information Officer, and Chief Digital Officer) to drive strategy execution.
- Ongoing new store opportunities. Minimum of 8 committed new stores in the first half.
- Margin underpinned by excess supplier capacity in market, reducing international freight cost, channel mix to DTC, offsetting any short-term FX impacts.
- Continued progress towards our 15% underlying EBITDA margin target, with right-sized cost base in place.
- Ongoing reduction of working capital to 18% of sales target to drive strong cash flow generation.
- Despite the challenging consumer sentiment, we are well positioned with tailwinds from continued return to travel, positive impact from the launch of innovative products and the outdoor lifestyle trend post-pandemic.
