

Salt Funds Management appoints a new independent director.

Thursday 12th February 2025
Press Release: Salt Funds Management

Salt Funds Management is pleased to announce Kate Armstrong has been appointed as an independent non-executive director of Salt Funds Management and Salt Investment Funds Limited, and chair of Salt's compliance committees.

Kate brings extensive experience in financial services. She joined the boards of Vero Insurance New Zealand and Vero Liability Insurance in May 2020 and has chaired the board audit and risk committee since August 2022. Previously, she was a director of Asteron Life until its sale by Suncorp Group in January 2025. Kate also serves on the board of TSB Bank and chairs the board risk committee.

Additionally, Kate has been a trustee of the New Zealand Housing Trust since December 2017, chairing its audit and risk committee for five years. She is a qualified lawyer with over 30 years' experience in financial services and governance.

Kate succeeds Kirsty Campbell, who resigned in December 2024.

"Salt is excited to appoint a senior professional of Kate's experience and skill to the board. She will start early February. This key appointment emphasises Salt's commitment to high quality governance" said Matthew Goodson, Managing Director.
