Kiwi Property appoints GM Digital

Kiwi Property has today appointed Angela Henderson to the newly created role of GM Digital.

With more than a decade's experience leading technology teams at businesses including Air New Zealand and Westpac, Angela will be charged with overseeing Kiwi Property's digital transformation.

Clive Mackenzie, Kiwi Property CEO, said the company expected digital to deliver growth and competitive differentiation in the years ahead.

"Technological innovation is set to play a key role in unlocking seamless experiences for our customers and tenants. As we continue on our journey to create connected mixed-use communities, the role of digital has never been more important."

"We're thrilled to welcome someone with Angela's expertise and proven track-record to our team, and look forward to her driving innovation and strategic leadership across the business. This is an exciting space and Angela's appointment will help ensure Kiwi Property remains at the forefront of the rapidly evolving digital landscape."
