

AGM Voting Results

Cooks Coffee Company (NZX:CCC) advises that at its Annual Meeting of Shareholders held yesterday afternoon, shareholders were asked to vote on five resolutions. As required by NZX Listing Rule 6.1, all voting was conducted by a poll.

Four of the resolutions put to shareholders were approved. The resolution to re-elect Mr Kiang Kui was not approved by a majority of those shareholders voting and accordingly Mr Kui has now ceased to hold office as a director of CCC.

The final voting figures are attached to this announcement.

Cooks Coffee is a New Zealand based international coffee focused café chain building a family of brands serving coffee, a full range of complimentary beverages and an extensive range of food, and sharing a passionate philosophy to provide their communities with excellent products and service based on integrity, sustainability, innovation and appealing environments.

Esquires Coffee was founded nearly 30 years ago in Vancouver and Cooks Coffee acquired the global rights (excluding Australia and New Zealand), focusing on operations in the UK and Ireland in 2013.

Triple Two Coffee was acquired in June 2020 and has an offering that is complementary to Esquires. Triple Two was founded in 2016 and it is currently one of the fastest growing coffee focused cafe brands in the UK.

Cooks Coffee Company and its subsidiary brands are committed to the highest standards of sustainability in all areas of the business.

With Esquires and Triple Two, Cooks Coffee has 114 outlets across its international markets at the end of July 2022.
