Just Life to buy supplements provider About Health for $17m NZ Herald

Beatrice Faumuina
Global Ambassador for Just Life Group

Just Life Group dominated the Business News last month, with three announcements:

1. The appointment of Beatrice Faumuina as Global Ambassador for Just Life Group;
2. The acquisition of 60% of Designer Tanks; and
3. The 100% acquisition of About Health, as per the Herald headline.

The Herald reported that JLG shares, trading at 96 cents at the time of the announcement, had gained 102% over the last 12 months.

New Type 2 Diabetes Report launched at Parliament

Last night in Parliament Associate Minister for Health Hon Peeni Henare and Minister for Pacific Peoples Hon Aupito William Sio launched a new report, sponsored by Just Life Group, showing that New Zealand has reached epidemic proportions of type 2 diabetes and is on a steep trajectory for the next 20 years.

Cath Taylor (Diabetes NZ), Sir Jerry Mateparae, Heather Verry (Diabetes NZ), Tamati Shephard-Wipiti (PwC), Tony Falkenstein (Just Life Group), Prof Rachael Taylor (EDOR), Dr Jim Mann (Healthier Lives)

Rights issue

All JLG shareholders were sent details of a rights issue, which allows them to purchase shares on a proportionate basis. At the time of the announcement, the 70 cents issue price was 27% below the last traded price.

Shareholders have rushed the rights issue with over two thirds committed already. Shareholders must take up their rights by 17 May if they wish to participate.

Just Water in the Community

Just Water staff on stand at North Shore Trade Show

“We make hot water fast, simple and affordable.”

A very simple promise from The Cylinder Guy, and one they live by. The business was acquired by Just Life Group in October 2020, and has shown good growth since the acquisition. And there is a 10% shareholder discount.

We were very satisfied with all parts of the process, from the response to our initial enquiry, the prompt provision of options, and the installation. The result has been up to our expectations. We would recommend The Cylinder Guy for its professionalism”

Unovent sales rise as winter arrives

Nobody likes wet windows, as they know that this means the house is not being ventilated, and the rooms are damp, causing mould. Unovent is unique in that each room has its own ventilation, with no need for ducting.

Shareholder discount of 10% available. www.unovent.co.nz

“When I noticed condensation in one of my rentals I did some research and decided on Unovent® for my home ventilation. It worked so well I’ve put one in my own home too.”

Krishna Somasundaram,
Auckland property investor

“Had this now nearly 16 years love it”

Solatube turns 30

It was time to celebrate Solatube’s birthday – since Solatube was born, Homotech and now Just Life Group, have been the proud exclusive suppliers of the product, now lighting up thousands of homes throughout New Zealand. And a birthday 10% discount to shareholders. www.solatube.co.nz

“We’ve installed two Solatubes in our hallway. They are just amazing. When my mother in law was visiting she kept telling us to turn off the light. Highly recommended.”

Rainwater is free!

The big ugly round rainwater tanks are a thing of the past. Designer Tanks are stylish tanks, which take less space and look great. Made from recycled plastic, a customer can choose between stylish pots, barrels or even walls.
