Synlait appoints new Chief Revenue Officer

Synlait Milk Limited (Synlait) has appointed experienced dairy executive Hamish Yates as Chief Revenue Officer (CRO).

Hamish has a proven record in business and brand strategy, international sales and market expansion, having worked for global businesses including Coca-Cola Amatil (NZ), DB Breweries and the New Zealand Merino Company.

For the past decade Hamish has been at Westland Milk Products, gaining a detailed understanding of dairy processing, including product mix and development, and asset optimisation.

He has been on Westland's executive team since 2017, most recently as GM Sales and Marketing.

Hamish will join Synlait in December 2025.
